Meeting Minutes

October 5, 2023

Louisville Public Library, Meeting Room

951 Spruce Street

6:00 PM

Call to Order – Mandy Perera called the meeting to order at 6:10pm.

Roll Call was taken and the following members were absent: Raymond Catlos, Soren Firestine, Nate Hart

Approval of Agenda – The agenda was approved by all members.

Approval of Meeting Minutes – No minutes, first meeting of school year

Public Comments - None

Members participated in introductions for the new school year.

Jessica and Mandy reviewed the onboarding documents: YAB purpose, meeting rules, board officers and committees, attendance, volunteer projects, open government rules.

New this year, Marketing Team and Volunteer Committee- a group of YAB members to work specifically in these areas of interest.

Board members participated in team building activities.

House Representative, and former YAB member, Ruby Dickson joined the group remotely to thank them for their time and service. She encouraged members to share what they are passionate about and community/world concerns. Energy & environment, transportation, wildlife, housing were discussed. Ruby shared that she is getting her bills together for the upcoming legislation session, January-May 2024, and many of the members concerns are included in bills she is bringing forward.

Members brainstormed ideas of the annual project. An event/project around the environment resonated with many members as well as the idea of “community/kindness”. Sharing of youth voices was mentioned. Members discussed youth experiencing nature and developing a connection.

Members and staff encouraged a project that is actionable and viable between now and May 2024. Members were asked to research and bring ideas to the November meeting. Mandy encouraged members to attend the Eco-October event happening on Oct 7 in Louisville- an event hosted by Louisville, Lafayette and Superior with activities, eco-friendly booths and organizations and costume exchange to explore ideas of an eco YAB project.

Comments for Liaisons - None

Discussion Items for Next Meeting – Officer elections, prepare a speech if running. Concrete, actionable, annual project.

Adjourn – The meeting was adjourned at 7:56pm
