10. Secretary's Report

- A. The Secretary reminded the Authority that the 2023 Open Government Pamphlet was provided in their packet.
- B. The Secretary updated the Authority on the closing of Main Street for 2024. The idea was presented to Council on January 16. During that meeting a couple of council members mentioned common consumption and entertainment districts. Neither of which is currently allowed by the municipal code. Since there is not enough time to get either option in place prior to this year's proposed street closure that Modification of Premises will be done this year as in year's past. However, she anticipates that there will be a delay in approving the MOPs by the LLA until Council decides what they want to do. Council will hear the item again in March.
